

SERVICE BULLETIN

NUMBER 515

6/13/13

Damage caused by “Hot Swapping”

Always assure 24VDC power is TURNED OFF before removing, replacing or unplugging components of a system!

“Hot Swapping” cables, harnesses or modules of Altronic Ignition, Instrumentation, or Control Systems while power is applied can damage the electronic components in the system.

Such damage is not covered under warranty, and can result in a product that is un-repairable.